MISERABLE MEMPHIS.

Sorely Stricken With the Saffron Scourge.

THE FEVER STILL SPREADING.

Seven New Cases and Seven Deaths To-day.

Special to the Star.

MEMPHIS, July 22.—1:30 P. M.—One new case reported since noon, making seven this morning. The reason for the sudden falling off in the number of new cases is that they were held back as long as possible to give the people time to leave town, and then reported in bulk. Three of the cases reported this morning will die. The disease assumes a very malignant form. PICKETT.

SIX NEW CASES AND SEVEN DEATHS.

Special to the Star.

MEMPHIS, July 22.—NOON.—Six new cases of yellow fever and seven deaths are reported this morning. Thomas R. Kinnam, Local Passenger Agent of the Memphis & Charleston Railroad, died at 3 o'clock this morning. Harry Ray, son of Judge Ray, died at a later hour.

The negroes are collecting in knots all about the city. It is estimated that twenty thousand whites have left. A few negroes only have left so far. PICKETT.

QUARANTINES ESTABLISHED.

National Associated Press to the Star.

MAHONY, IND., July 22.—The Board of Health of this city met yesterday afternoon and pronounced Madison quarantined against Memphis and all points in the South infected with the yellow fever.

CAIRO, ILL., July 22.—The City Council yesterday authorized the appointment of as many men as may be necessary to make the quarantine effective, and to expend all money needed to secure protection and good health. The city is now healthy. The steamer St. Genevieve arrived about noon with three hundred passengers from Memphis, but she was not allowed to land, and proceeded to St. Louis.

THIS MORNING AT MEMPHIS.

MEMPHIS, July 22.—9 A. M.—It is too early in the day for reports, but there is evidently no lifting of the dark cloud that hangs over Memphis. The population is much thinned out, and those that remain are a most despondent looking set. The weather this morning is close and sultry, with indications of rain. Dr. Collins, of the Board of Health, says he believes the disease will be checked within thirty days as suddenly as it came, as there will be no material for it to work on. Raleigh, in this country, is full of refugees, and has quarantined against Memphis.

ONE CASE AT UNION, TENN.

UNION, TENN., July 22.—This community is greatly excited over the report that a case of yellow fever is reported in Martin, and the place is about deserted.

Colby and Solsten, of the American bark Antonio Sals, which arrived from Havana, Sunday, were sent to the Swinburne Hospital sick with fever. Colby died Sunday night and was buried yesterday.

A STRICKEN CREW.

The Captain of the brig Munson, from Cardenas, which arrived in New York last night, reports that July 15th, in latitude 27°, longitude 79° 50' he saw a brig flying signals of distress, and found her to be the brig Akbar, from Havana, bound for New York, with the officer in charge and three crew sick with the yellow fever. The captain died in Havana. The brig required a navigator, and the mate of the Munson was put on board.

A case of supposed yellow fever in this city has been reported to the Board of Health. James Burns, a sailor, arrived at this port from Havana on Thursday last on the schooner Charles Noonan. On Saturday last he became very sick. He was visited yesterday by a doctor, who stated that it was not yellow fever, but a severe type of malaria fever. This report has allayed the excitement which prevailed here during yesterday.

THE NATIONAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The National Board of Health has no official connection with the Sanitary Society of the Mississippi Valley, therefore the State and local Boards desiring assistance from the National Board should send all communications direct to Washington, as per memoranda published in these dispatches day before yesterday.

Cincinnati.

The understanding between Dr. Minor and the Memphis and New Orleans Packet Companies is that no more boats will be sent South in the quarantine.

Dr. Minor last evening gave emphatic orders to the sleeping-car company at Louisville that no sleepers from points below Louisville would be allowed to enter or pass through this city.

The Fire Department will flush dirty alleys and gutters to-night.

The Lick Run Hospital has been fitted up and is now ready to receive patients afflicted with contagious diseases.

The Virgie Lee, running between here and Evansville, was the first boat stopped by the Sanitary Officers. She came up the river yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. She was flagged, and the officers boarded her in mid-stream. Everything was found in a condition, and she was allowed to go on her way.

The telephone connection was completed this morning between the Health Office and the Delhi Quarantine Station.

It is to be allowed the Sanitary Police for services at the Quarantine stations, all of the force are anxious to get a berth along the river bank.

The following was received by Dr. Minor this forenoon:

MEMPHIS, July 22.—9:37 A. M. Twenty-three cases since 9 a. m. yesterday. Five deaths. (Signed) R. W. MITCHELL.

THE PARKER'S RAGE.

The James D. Parker, which will arrive to-day from Memphis, will undergo a thorough overhauling by the quarantine officers. They have both been appointed to the mission of the Peace for Douglas.

THE SPORTING WORLD.

Boat Races.

To J. E. Wegelin, President, and the members of the Aquatic Boat Club.

We cheerfully accept your challenge to a scull race on the Ohio River with a picked crew from among the members of your Club.

Would be pleased to meet you Wednesday evening and make the necessary arrangements as regards to time, distance, &c. Yours truly, W. M. NEPPER, Captain Aquatic Club.

Ed. WISNIEWSKI, Secretary.

To the Editor of the Star.

We, the Triton Boat Club, hereby challenge the Aquatic Club to row a double scull race on the Ohio River from bridge to bridge and return; time to be mutually agreed upon.
